

Granby Education Foundation Photographic Image Policy

As a community focused organization, it is of interest to the Granby Education Foundation (GEF) to publish information highlighting the use of Community Grant funding in action. Therefore, the GEF will not collect permission slips for the posting of photographic images on its website or in other printed media. Please note that no names will be used. If you object to the use of your or your child's image, please complete the form below and return it to the program facilitator prior to the time of the event.

Please do not publish any photographs or work of the person(s) named below on the Granby Education Foundation website or in any other GEF publication.
